Mr Richard Barton

MBBS, FRACS

Plastic, Reconstructive & Cosmetic Surgeon

Richard Barton is a trained Plastic Surgeon with a dual international fellowship in microsurgical reconstruction and adult craniomaxillofacial surgery, including rhinoplasty and facial aesthetic surgery. He is a fellow of the Royal Australasian College of Surgeons (RACS) and member of the Australian Society of Plastic Surgeons (ASPS).

Graduating from medicine in 1998, Richard undertook further training prior to his recognition as a specialist Plastic Surgeon, then embarked on a double international fellowship with appointments at Oxford University Hospitals, UK, and Vancouver General Hospital, Canada. This was followed by an Adult Craniofacial Fellowship focussing on bony facial trauma and post-traumatic deformity reconstruction including rhinoplasty with the University of British Columbia, Vancouver.

With current appointments at The Royal Melbourne, The Alfred Hospital and Monash Health, Richard manages adult facial trauma and complex microsurgical head and neck reconstruction. He is the RACS Surgical Supervisor for Plastic Surgery Trainees and Director of the Advanced Microsurgical Fellowship for internationally qualified Plastic Surgeons at The Royal Melbourne Hospital.

In his private practice, Mr Barton manages a diverse range of plastic surgical cases with a specific interest in reconstructive and cosmetic surgery of the face and nose. He performs breast surgery, body contouring surgery, hand surgery and provides the full spectrum of surgical skin cancer treatment.
